

The Wisconsin No-Call List has significantly improved my life and I do NOT want the law diminished in any way. There is no reason that any company that I have discontinued doing business with should be able to harass me for 18 months. Nor is there any reason that affiliates of any company that I currently do business with should be able to harass me.

Thank you.